excited
nervous
That is the face of someone hoping to hear a snotty, very Atobe-like remark from a rich person!
Y-you're totally right! They look like they want him to say "Is this a club-room? I thought it was a dog house"!!

If you have something to say, Atobe, go ahead
Even if it were true, there is no way I would tell such rude things
This is where we must take care of our public image! Say it, Atobe excited

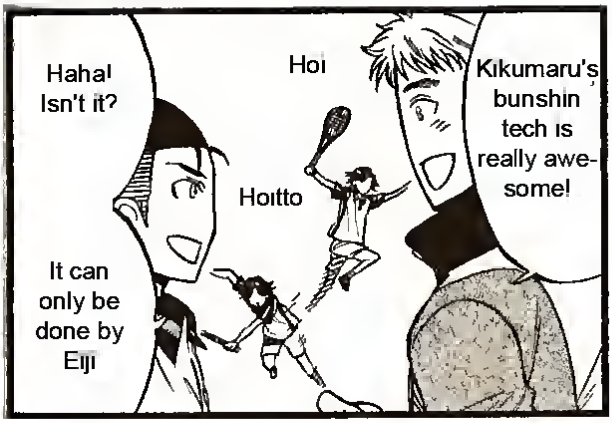
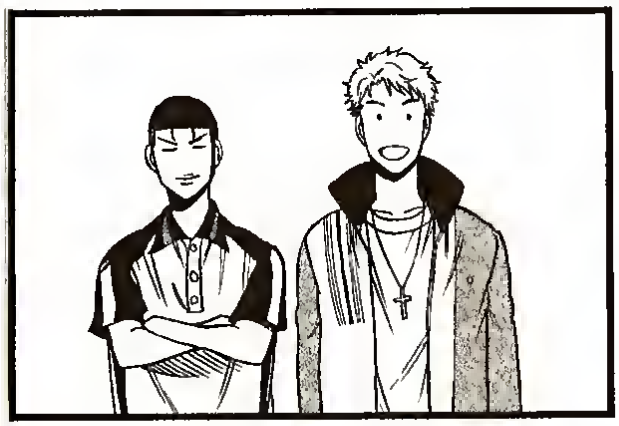
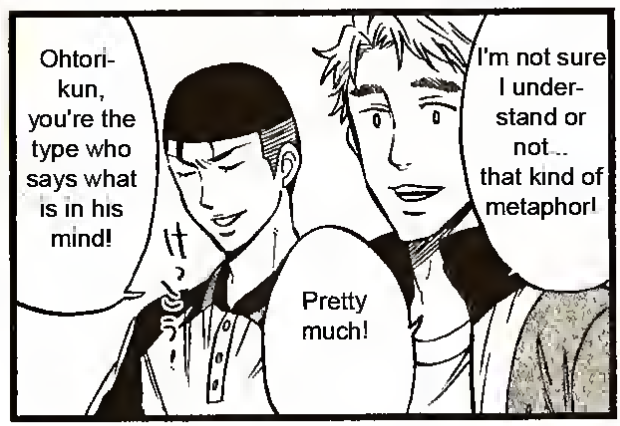
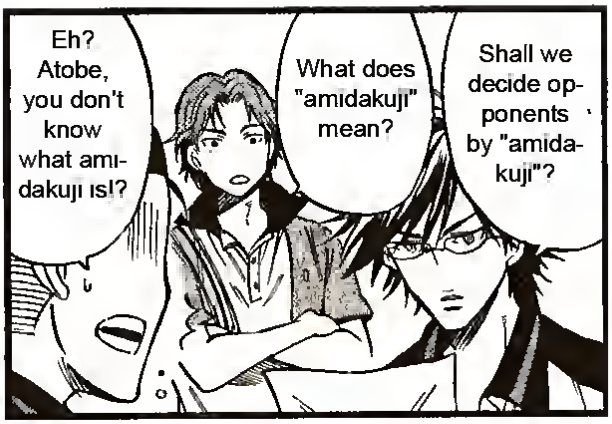
The man called Kikumaru

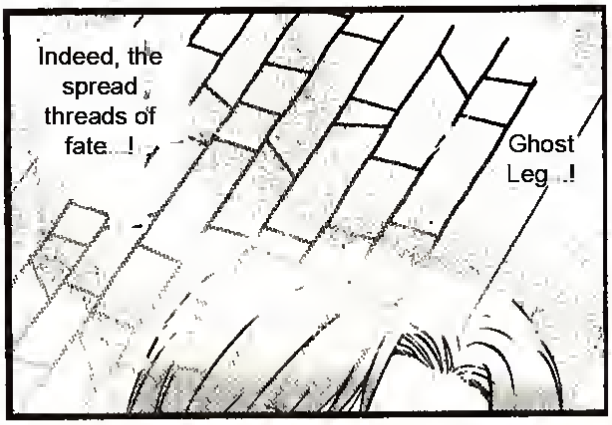


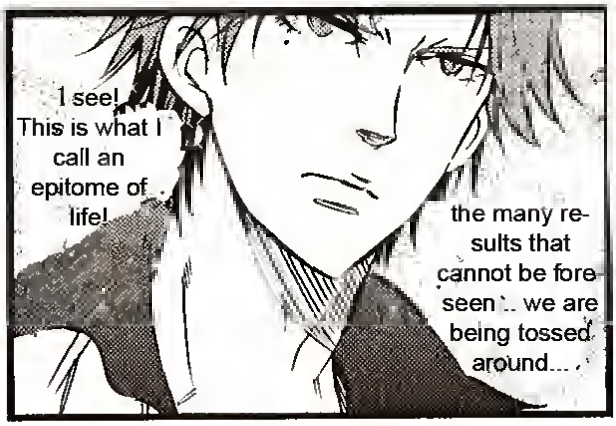


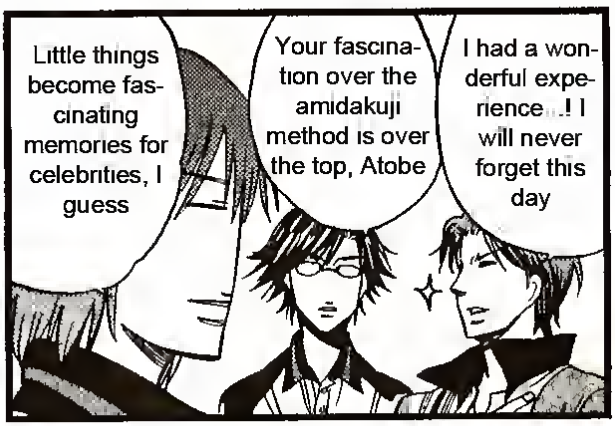


Amidakuji









Little things become fascinating memories for celebrities, I guess
Your fascination over the amidakuji method is over the top, Atobe
I had a wonderful experience...! I will never forget this day

Refreshing sleep

what a return to the opposite corner! niamniam Eeei! I returned it Like that! Jiroh! It's a serve!
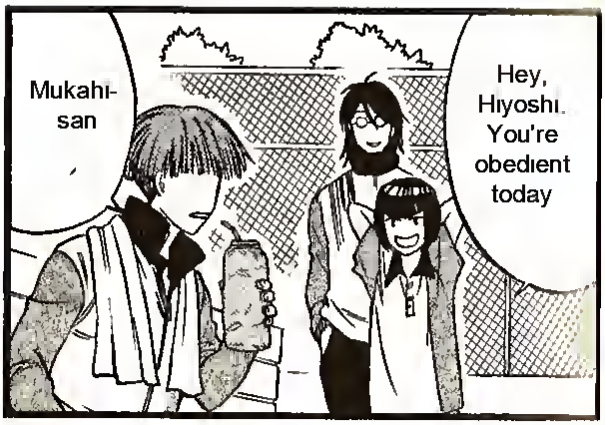
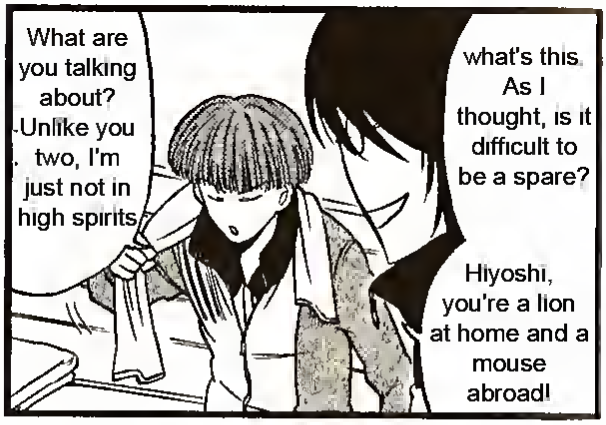
niam! I returned them all with my volleys!

Hiyoshi messing around





What are you talking about? Unlike you two, I'm just not in high spirits what's this. As I thought, is it difficult to be a spare?
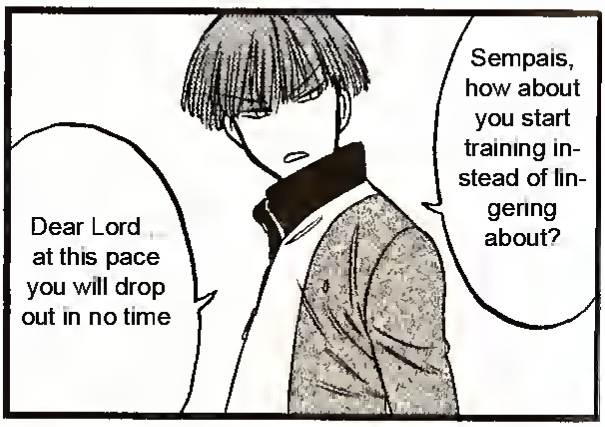
Hiyoshi, you're a lion at home and a mouse abroad!



will he fold ours too?
... and while he talks big like that he demonstrates his good upbringing on the way he folds the towels

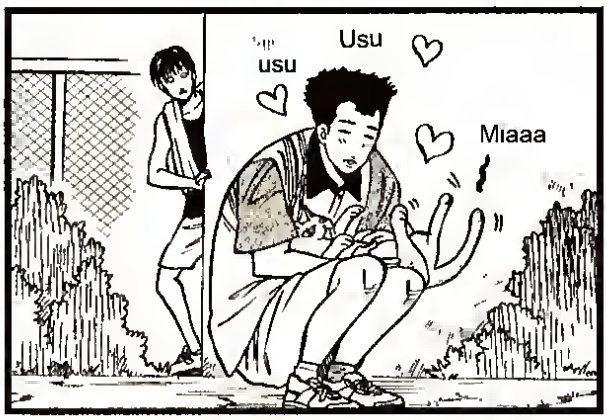
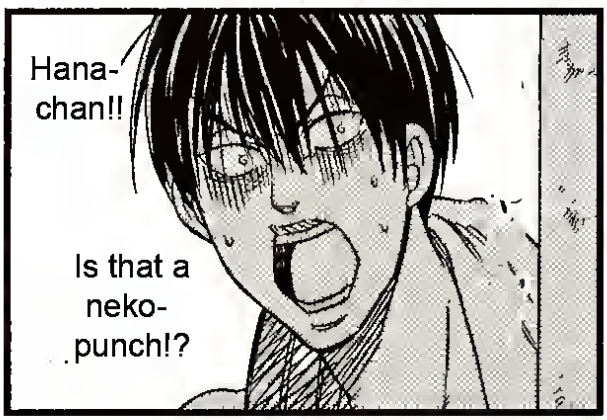
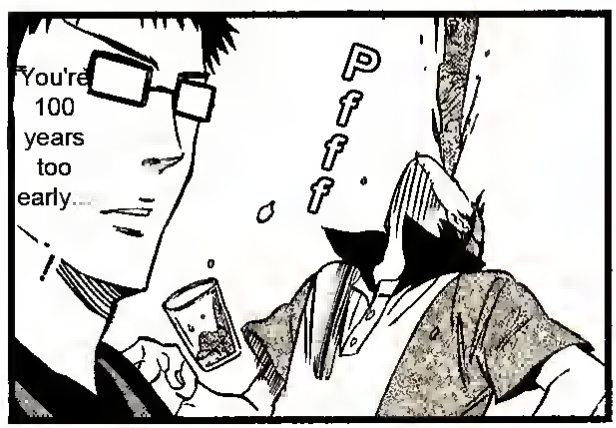
Hana-chan's neko-punch is like no other... She still hasn't let me hold her even once...
Hana-chan is not the type of cat who would immediately be tamed in the first meeting

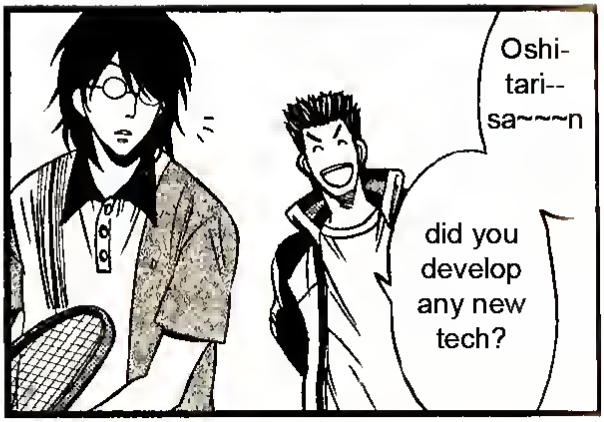


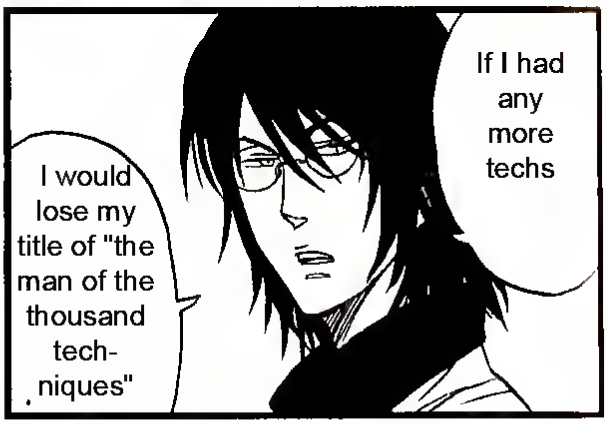


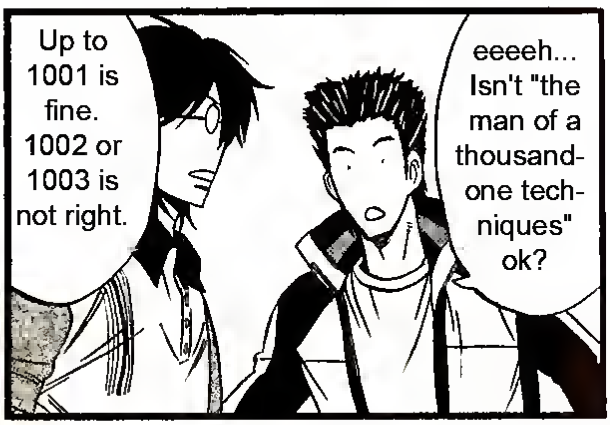
Revenge

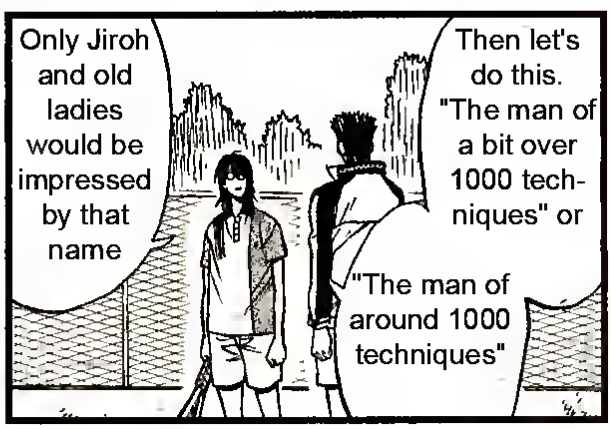


The genius of a thousand techniques









Only Jiroh and old ladies would be impressed by that name Then let's do this. "The man of a bit over 1000 tech-niques" or
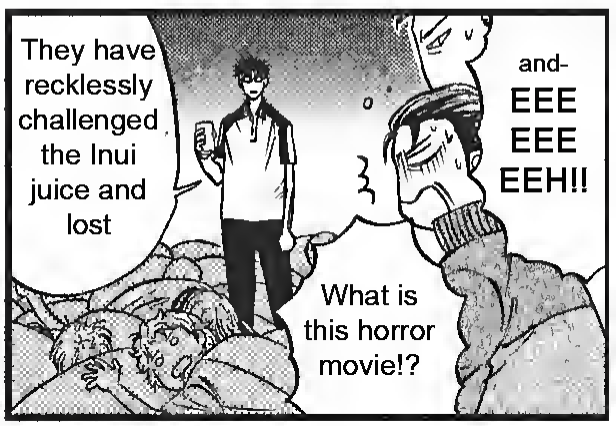
"The man of around 1000 techniques"

The man who rules

Our school members were also looking forward to the practice,
I'm sure they're wrecking havoc
Let's see if these young birds have already had a friendly practice



The strategy is Yukimura

You all seem a bit nervous before the national tournament
As the captain, I cannot cheer you up anymore than I do already, but let me tell you one thing

There is no doubt there will be very powerful players in the Nationals there will be happenings like Sanada losing to a first year rookie in the Kantou tournament

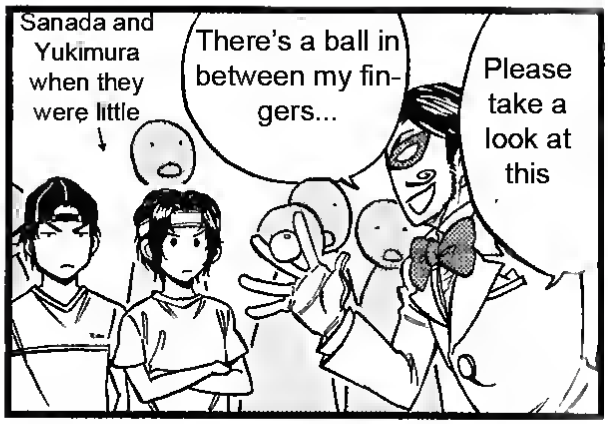
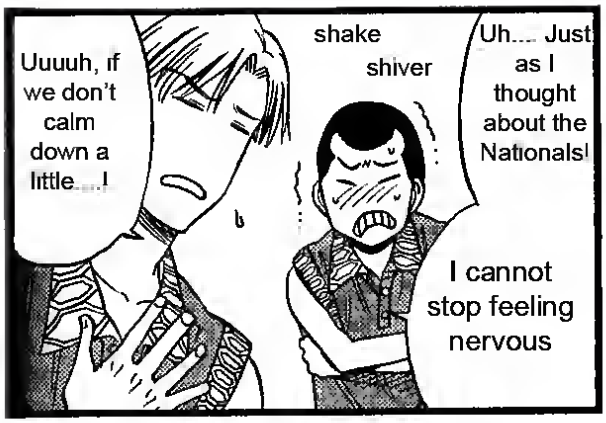
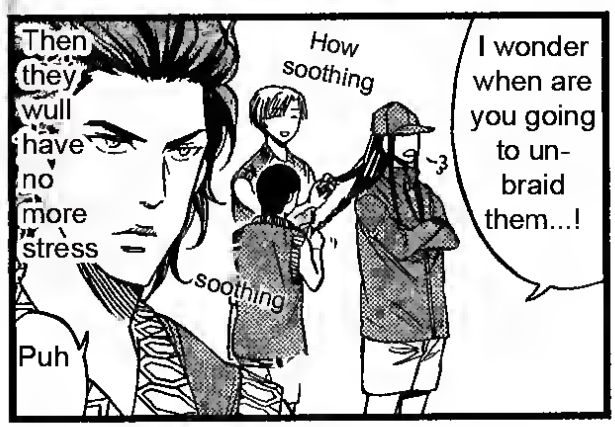
Magic

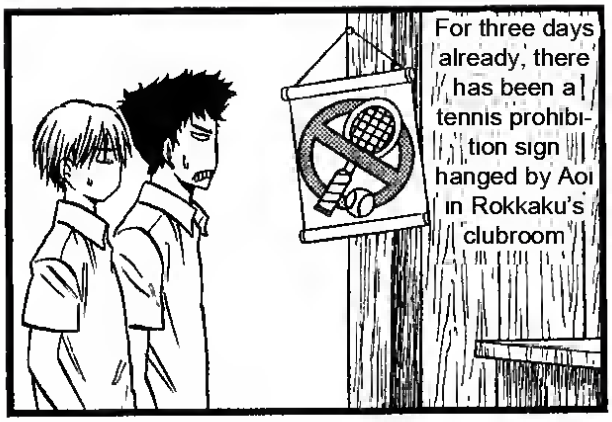


Calm down, guys!





As the buchou I am!



What is a tennis gauge!?
No, no! Your tennis gauge hasn't filled up yet Today as well!? We went to play tennis already, Kentaroh!
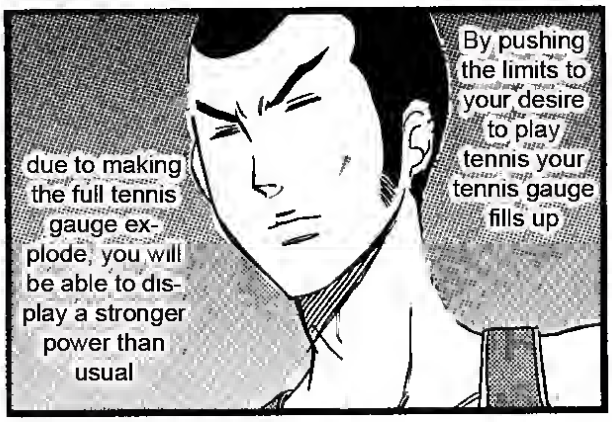
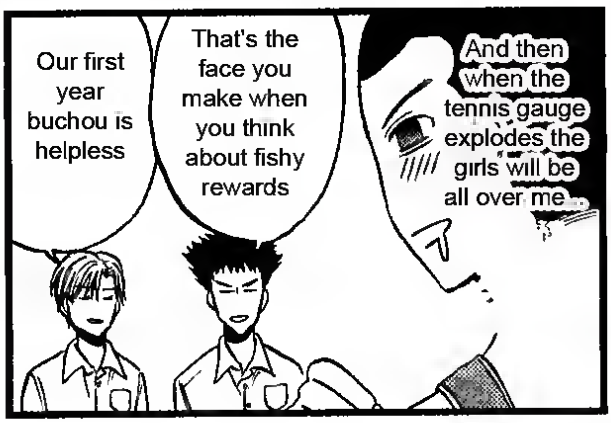
Very well! Let's go shellfish gathering today too!



due to making the full tennis gauge explode, you will be able to display a stronger power than usual
By pushing the limits to your desire to play tennis your tennis gauge fills up



Our first year buchou is helpless
That's the face you make when you think about fishy rewards
And then when the tennis gauge explodes the girls will be all over me...
